1. Prep ingredients

Preheat the oven to 220C. Line an oven tray with baking paper. Roughly chop the tomato. Finely chop the onion. Pick the dill fronds and finely chop the stems, keeping them separate. Put the tomato, dill fronds, half the onion, 1 tbs red wine vinegar and 2 tsp olive oil in a bowl, season with salt and pepper and stir to combine.

2. Bake sweet potato gems

Cut the unpeeled sweet potato into 2cm chunks. Put on the lined tray and drizzle with 2 tsp olive oil. Season with salt and pepper and toss to coat. Roast, turning once, for 15 mins. Cut the baguettes in half, put on a separate oven tray and roast for a further 5 mins or until the sweet potato is tender and the baguettes are golden and toasted.

3. Start chorizo topping

Meanwhile, thinly slice the chorizo. Heat 1 tbs olive oil in a medium frypan over high heat. Cook the chorizo and dill stems, stirring occasionally, for 5 mins or until the chorizo is golden and crisp.

4. Finish chorizo topping

Add the remaining onion and cook, stirring, for 2 mins or until softened. Remove the pan from the heat. Add 1 tbs red wine vinegar and 1 tsp honey, season with salt and pepper and stir to combine.

5. Assemble and serve up

Peel and halve 1 garlic clove, then rub over the cut side of the baguettes. Divide the baguettes among plates. Top with the tomato salsa and chorizo mixture. Drizzle with the salsa juices and pan juices. Serve with the sweet potato gems and enjoy!

6. Did you know?

The word 'bruschetta' comes from the Italian bruscare, meaning 'to toast'. But how do you pronounce it? In Italian, 'ch' sounds like a 'k' not a 'sh' – so the correct way to say it is bruu-sket-ta. The original bruschetta was basic: bread rubbed with a garlic clove and drizzled with olive oil.
